

Yay!

I believe in celebrating as many accomplishments as possible! Our kiddos need to have their confidence boosted over and over again, especially when they're doing something NEW!

Use these signs however you see fit to celebrate your child's hard work during virtual preschool! You can print them to be used as a photo prop to brag on social media, or even have your child hold up an iPad displaying their certificate. Hang it on the fridge, post it in their bedroom, show it to grandma and grandpa on FaceTime, whatever!

I'm excited for the rest of our year, learning everyday and celebrating accomplishments along the way!
